

Does your research impact society responsibly?
Design your sustainable multi-stakeholder initiative using MULTI-ACT

12 November 2019

University Foundation, rue d'Egmont 11, Brussels

10:00-14:00

This event is moderated by: Mr Pieter van Galen, EMSP

9:30-10:00 Registration & Coffee

10:00-10:15 Welcome by moderator & introduction from project coordinator (Pieter van Galen, EMSP & Paola Zarin, MULTI-ACT Project Coordinator)

10:15-10:35 A new governance criterion allowing effective cooperation of all relevant stakeholders in multi-stakeholder research initiatives and transformative governance (Costanza Monari, EY Italy)

10:35-10:55 A dashboard of indicators to monitor and evaluate the impact of research on the mission (Ericka Costa, University of Trento)

10:55-11:15 Measuring research impact on Patient Reported dimension (Deborah Bertorello & Giampaolo Brichetto, Italian MS Society)

11:15-11:35 The ECF Multi-stakeholder Initiative: the MS care unit case study and how MULTI-ACT will help fill the gaps (Giancarlo Comi, European Charcot Foundation)

11:35-12:35 Panel discussion on key elements of the MULTI-ACT project: multi-stakeholder research initiatives, measuring research impact and patient engagement

Giancarlo Comi, European Charcot Foundation

Michael Thor, Multiple Sclerosis International Federation

Linden Farrer, DG Research & Innovation, European Commission

Janice Nissen, MSD

Stephane Berghmans, Elsevier

12:35-12:45 Audience Q&A

12:45-12:50 Project Video Premiere

12:50-13:00 Wrap-up & concluding statement

13:00-14:00 Networking Lunch